Activity itinerary:

Halong Bay (8h)

Viewed from above, Hạ Long Bay looks like an extremely vivid huge drawing. This is a wonderful and skilful masterpiece of the Creation and of nature that turns thousands of dumb soulless stone islands into fantastic sculptural and artistic works of various graceful shapes, both familiar and strange to human beings. Thousands of islands emerging uneven in the fanciful waves look strong and magnificent but also mild and vivid. Amidst these islands we feel as if we were astray in a petrified legendary world.

Sung Sot Cave (2h)

Admission ticket included

Located in the central area of the bay in Bo Hon Island, Sung Sot Cave is the most beautiful and spacious cave which is one of must-visit attractions in Halong Bay. Covering a total area of over 10,000 square metre, Sung Sot cave is described as an “Opera House” with thousands of magic stalactites and stalagmites in various shapes.

Ti Top Island (2h)

Titop island gains popularity not only for its mesmerising beauty but also as a haven for a number of activities such as swimming, sunbathing, kayaking, mountain climbing, and water sports.

Swimming and sunbathing on Crescent beach

Because of the immaculate white sand and the calm waters, the beach is perfect for water-based recreational activities like swimming, sunbathing, and playing other water sports. Full services and gear for activities are also provided so you can freely enjoy all activities.

Climbing to the top of Titop island is another not-to-miss activity for youngsters and adventurous travellers. After nearly 30 minutes of climbing, you will have a panoramic view of Halong Bay and breathe fresh air.
